LINDBERGH - THE HERO OF THE DAY

Words by JENS. T. TENNEFOSS

Music by CHESTER ESCHER

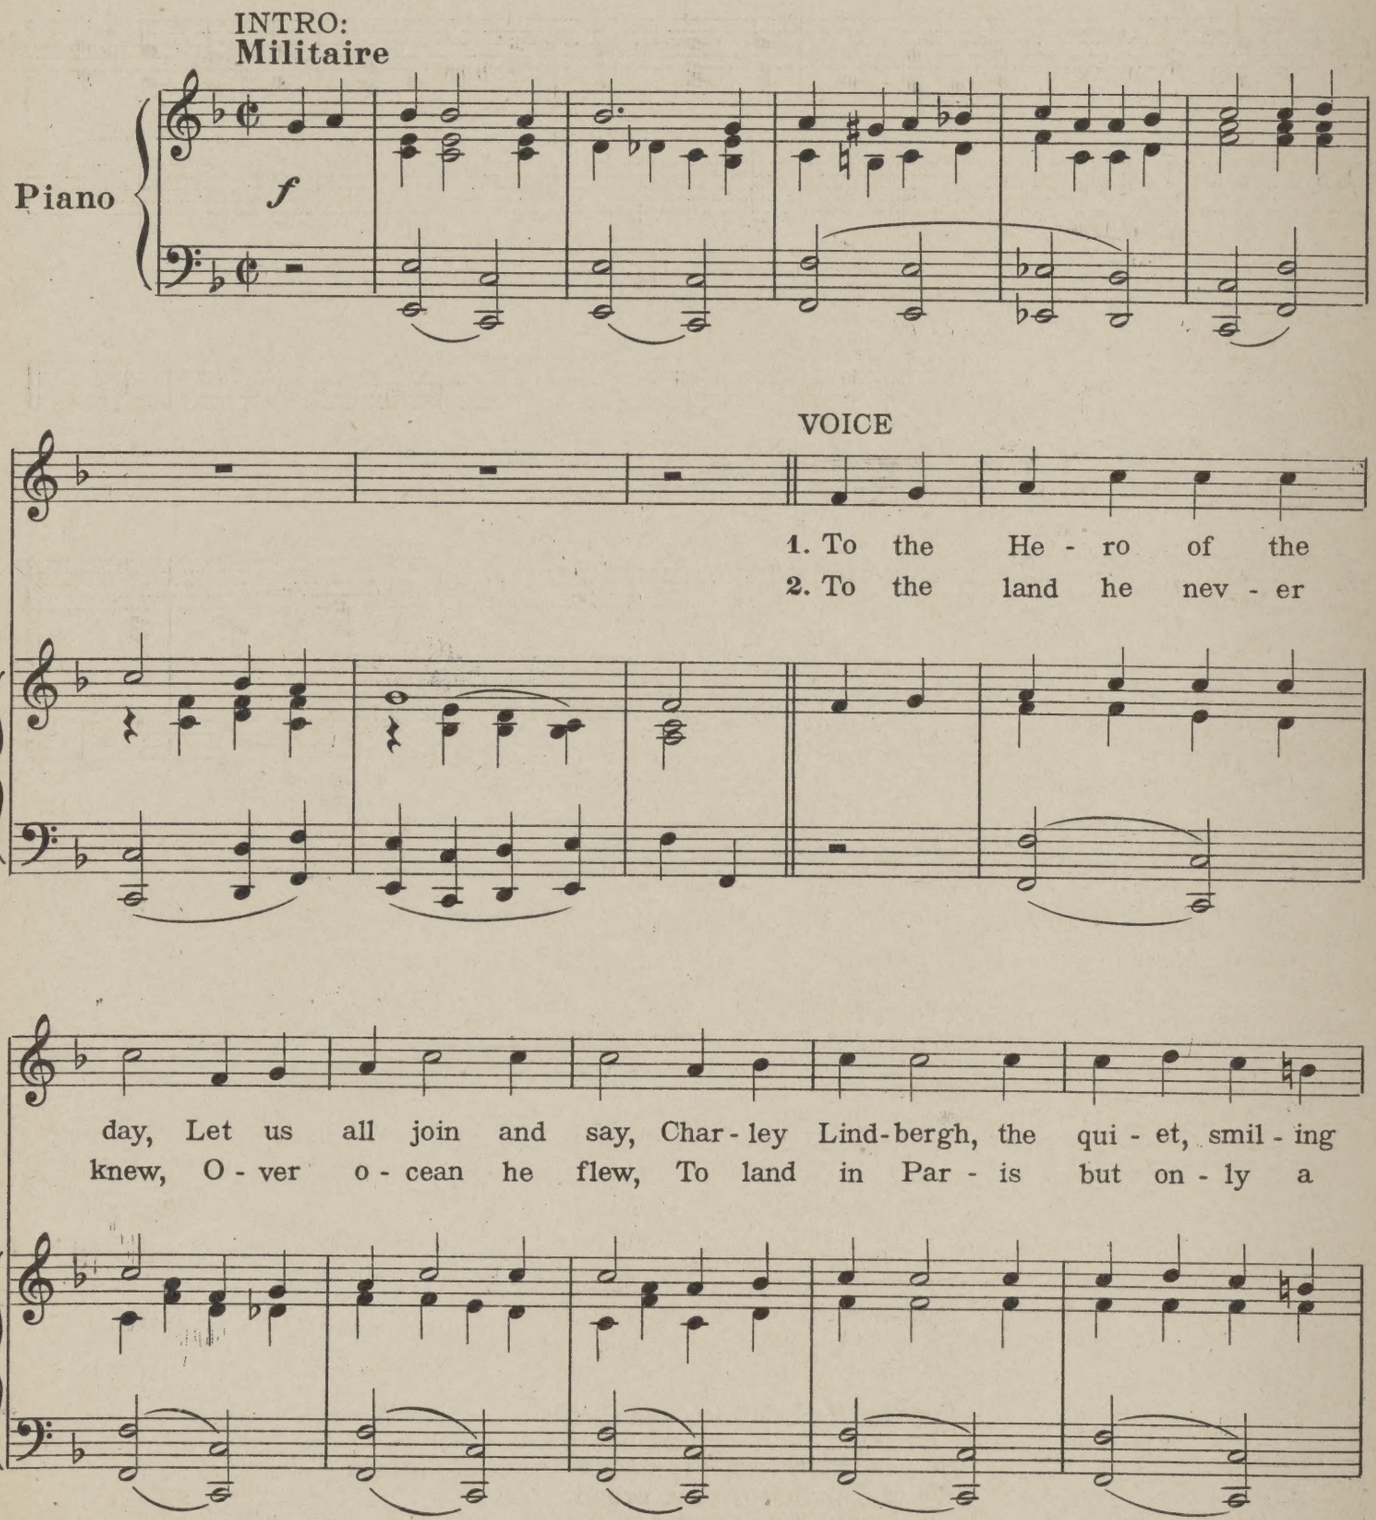
Published by
CHESTER ESCHER
1547 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

Made in U. S. A.

"Lindbergh- The Hero Of The Day!"

Words by
JENS T. TENNEFOSS

Music by
CHESTER ESCHER



INTRO:
Militaire
Piano
f
VOICE
1. To the He - ro of the
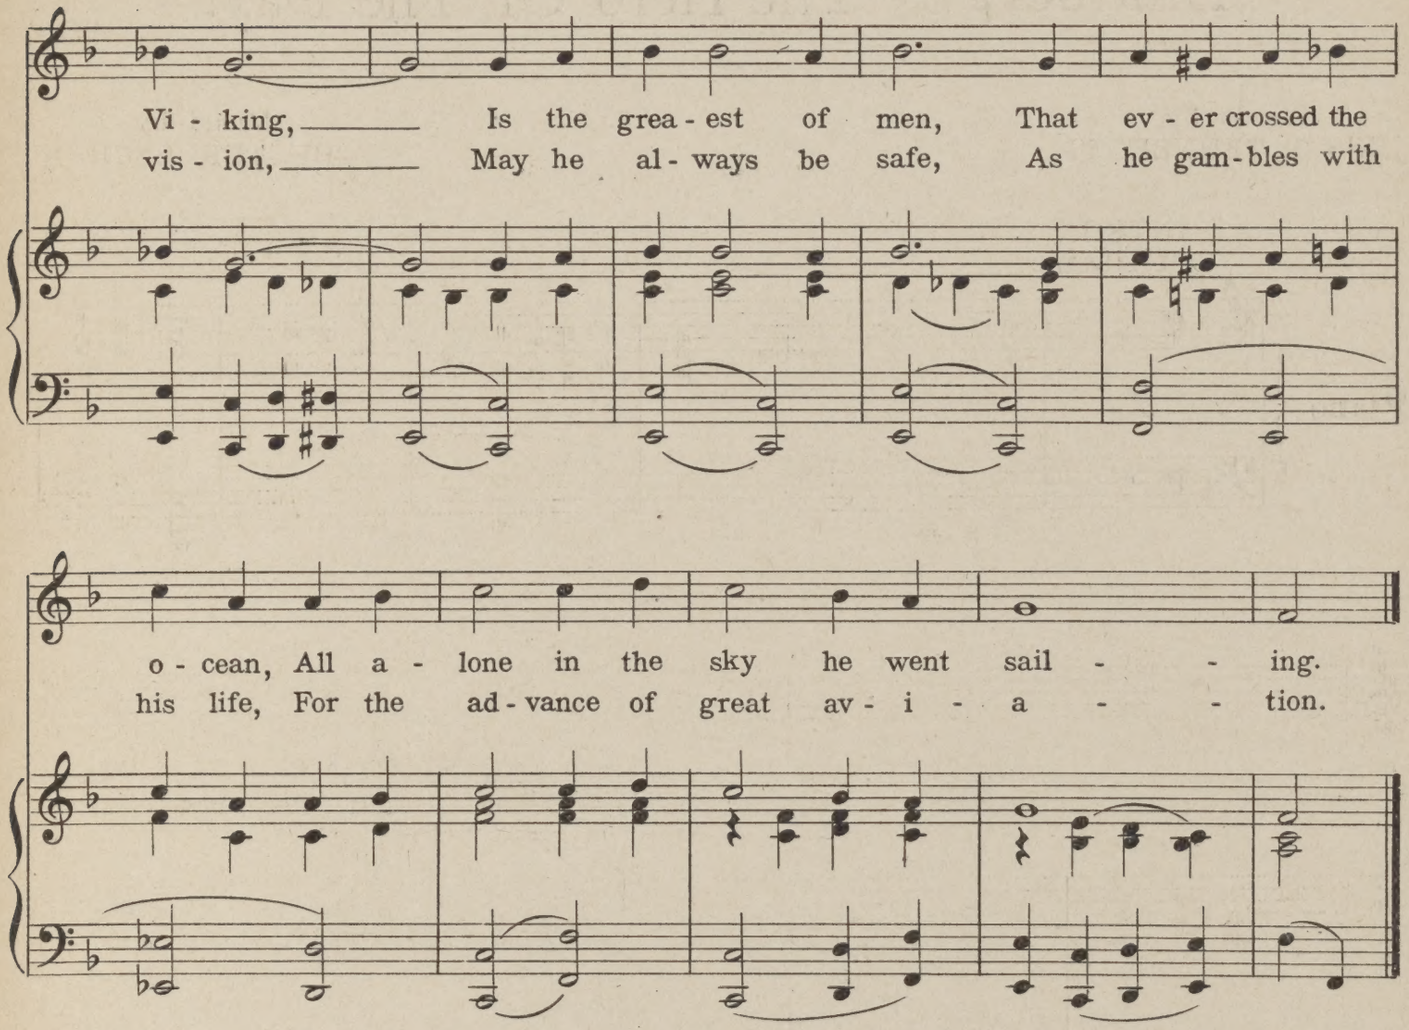
2. To the land he nev - er day, Let us all join and say, Char - ley Lind - bergh, the qui - et, smil - ing knew, O - ver o - cean he flew, To land in Par - is but on - ly a

Copyright MCMXXVIII by CHESTER ESCHER, 1547 Broadway, New York City
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved



Vi - king, Is the grea - est of men, That ev - er crossed the vis - ion, May he al - ways be safe, As he gam - bles with o - cean, All a - lone in the sky he went sail - - ing.
his life, For the ad - vance of great av - i - a - - tion.

EXTRA VERSES

3.
All alone right in the seat,
With a sandwich to eat,
On the trip clear from New York right to Paris,
Other nations have tried,
And their great heroes have died,
First of all he received all the glories.

4.
Charley Lindbergh was the Swede,
Broke the records for speed.
And he shall be our hero, yes forever,
Let us all bless his name,
And hope God will do the same,
To a long life, forever and ever.

5.
For the Red, White and Blue,
Charley Lindbergh stands true,
He won glory and Friendship from all nations,
We of Lindbergh are proud,
Oh, Uncle Sam sing out loud,
For the advance of great aviation.